

Lee Chu
CMU
School of Architecture

(626) 202-7234
lrchu@andrew.cmu.edu
1809 Carvin Avenue
Rowland Heights, CA 91748

Aspiring architect attending Carnegie Mellon University's School of Architecture with experience in planning, designing, and executing diverse project ideas. Extensive background in architecture projects, drafting, and computer-aided design. Technical skills and attention to detail complement an innate sense of creativity and innovation in the design of both the aesthetically attractive and functional.

EDUCATION

Carnegie Mellon University; Pittsburgh, PA

Class of 2021

Bachelor of Architecture.
Prospective minor in Music.

EXPERIENCE

Association of Rowland Educators; Rowland Heights, CA - Intern

2015 - 2016

Directed Chinese community outreach movement by contacting Chinese community residents and organized press releases through local newspapers.
Assisted Association President with projects and research.
Promoted public relations.

SKILLS

Computer Literacy:

Adobe Indesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, and Creative Cloud.

Rhinoceros/Vray.

Microsoft Office Suite.

Hand: drafting, rendering, perspective drawing, model building.

Languages: English and Mandarin Chinese.

COURSEWORK

Architecture Studio, Analog and Digital Media, Building Physics, Historical Survey of World Architecture and Urbanism.

NOTABLE PROJECTS

Wedding Pavilion on Lake Eerie

Nov - Dec 2016

Designed and modeled site plan of cube house wedding pavilion.
Rendered and drafted plans and views of said site plan.

INTERESTS & ACTIVITIES

Classical Piano.

2003 - Present

Excelled in uppermost Certificate of Merit level.

Jazz pianist in Rowland High School Band.

2016 - 2017

Taiwanese Student Association.

Jan 2017